

2021 Tire Purchase Rebate Claim Form

Program Highlights:

- Full-time employees and part-time employees classified by Michelin as eligible to retire can rebate up to 8 tires per year, up to a maximum cumulative rebate of $750 for the year. Part-time, Co-op, Technical Scholar, Intern employees, and Retirees can rebate up to 4 tires per year, up to a maximum cumulative rebate of $375 for the year.
- Purchases of Michelin, BFGoodrich, and Uniroyal brands are eligible for rebate. Passenger, light truck, motorcycle, and utility trailer tires count as one tire each toward your yearly tire allotment. Michelin manufactured bicycle tires are also eligible for rebate, with each bicycle tire counting as 0.5 of a tire towards your yearly tire allotment.
- Tires purchased in 2021 are eligible for this rebate. Eligible tire purchases made in 2021 can be submitted for rebate through March 31, 2022. Eligible tire purchases made in 2020 can be submitted for rebate through March 31, 2021 using the 2020 Tire Purchase Rebate Claim Form.
- Eligible requests with correct paperwork will typically be processed in approximately 4 weeks from the time you mail this form.
- Review the current Summary Plan Description (SPD) for the Rebate Program for complete program details prior to tire purchases to determine if your purchase will meet the program requirements. The SPD is available via the Personnel Service Center (PSC) on-line at www.PersonnelServiceCenter.com or by phone (877) 435-7868.
